This trek provides you with the opportunity to experience diverse culture, lush valleys as well as arid landscape, alpine as well as sub-tropical vegetation, world's deepest gorge formed by the Kaligandaki River as well as the high passes of Thorang La besides other contrasting sites. Join Annapurna Circuit Trek with Tilicho Lake and Ghorepani to feel the flavor of Hinduism, Buddhism and its blend, culturally rich villages and swaying suspension bridges, prayer wheels and Chhortens, terraced lands and alpine pastures as well as the towering eight-thousandths including the Annapurna I, II, III, Annapurna South, and others watching over the diverse landscape of Annapurna region. Annapurna Circuit with Tilicho Lake Trek begins from the beautiful hill town of Besisahar reached after a drive from Kathmandu in a scenic drive that takes past terraced fields, fast-flowing streams, rocky gorges, rural settlements and twisting roads. Continuing along the mighty Marshangdi River, we explore the landscapes and vegetation of Annapurna Conservation Area, rural settlements including Jagat, Syange, Chamje and others as we enter into the Manang district. With the vegetation changing from dense forest to scattered alpine, we continue traversing the Tibetan like settlements of Dharapani, Braga, Ngawal and others. From this scenic landscape surrounded by the majestic Annapurna range, we head on to the gorgeous Tilicho Lake through an ancient settlement of Manang. Ahead in the trek shall be the challenging and inspirational Thorang La Pass (5,416m), the widest pass in the world, which we cross cautiously and enter into the region of spiritual Muktinath Temple. Descending to the Valley of Kaligandaki River, we traverse through one-of-the-kind Kagbeni, Marpha (famous for tasty apple and its products) and the windy valley of Jomsom. Along the Kaligandaki River, we shall continue exploring the quaint villages, forests and lush hills, diverse flora and fauna before relaxing at the natural hot water springs at Tatopani. Ahead in the Annapurna Circuit Trek with Tilicho Lake and Ghorepani adventure, we explore the Ghorepani village through beautiful rhododendron forest and get immersed in the early morning sunrise from Poonhill. The sunrise seen from here, over the panoramic vistas of the Himalayas including Dhaulagiri, Annapurna ranges, Fishtail, Himchuli, Thapa Peak, Dhampus Peak and others, is beyond description. From here, we descend through lush and colorful villages of Tadapani, Chhomrong before heading for Pokhara and then to Kathmandu where the trek shall come to an end. Without embarking on the Annapurna Circuit with Tilicho Lake Trek, the adventure experience in Nepal is incomplete. In this trek requiring moderate fitness and previous trekking experience, trekkers shall have diversities, contrast and enriching encounters; a strenuous, pleasant and amusing experience awaits here besides the diversity of communal in habitation, cultural heritage and wildlife.
