

Bhotekoshi River Rafting-1 Day

Duration: 1 Days

Overview

Trip Grade: Easy	Max Altitude:
Activity: Rafting	Group Size: Min. 02 pax
Arrival On: Kathmandu, Nepal	Departure From: Kathmandu, Nepal
Meals: All meals during trek & breakfast in kathmandu	Accommodation: Stone Built Houses (tea houses) during trek

“We live in a wonderful world that is full of beauty, charm and adventure.” Running alongside Araniko Highway up north to the Tibetan border, Bhotekoshi river is situated northeast of Kathmandu which is considered as one of the most challenging rafting rivers in Nepal. Offering some of the steepest and hardest rafting currents, Bhotekoshi river can be a very thrilling venture for adventure enthusiasts who really want to experience something out of ordinary. But only a handful of companies operate rafting in this river. So, it will be wise to choose the right one before going for a rafting trip to Bhotekoshi river. Moreover, this river is listed to be one of the cold rivers in Nepal which will require you to wear wetsuits and paddle jackets if you are planning to take a ride through Bhotekoshi river in the winter season. Contact, Himalayan Holyland Treks & Expedition today and book our Bhotekoshi River Rafting package to experience a mind-blowing rafting trip in Nepal with us.

Itinerary

Kathmandu-Rafting point.

Private transportation pick up at 06:30 am from your hotel – 03 hrs drive to rafting put in point at Lamosanghu – 04 hrs rafting – back to Kathmandu.

Cost Includes

- => Private transportation for day rafting trip from Kathmandu to Kathmandu.
- => All your river rafting fees.
- => One lunch on day rafting on Bhotekoshi river.
- => All required rafting gears and equipments.
- => All our service and government taxes.
- => Experienced rafting guide and raft crew with all wages, insurance, equipment.

Cost Excludes

- => Your travel insurance
- => Personal expenses like beverage drinks while on day rafting
- => Tips to the rafting crew

